

New Website Youri Zoon online

Youri Zoon, one of the best Dutch riders ranking 3rd overall in the 2006 PKRA world ranking, is preparing himself for a strong comeback in 2009. He will re-enter the PKRA arena to compete at the highest level of kiteboarding. Youri Zoon's sponsor Daarom.com webdesign Noordwijk now proudly announces Youri's new website at www.yourizoon.com. His new website is also aspiring to be amongst the best in its kind, giving anyone an insight into Youri's professional Journey, presenting his latest news, pictures and video's.

Youri's kiteboarding has already led to many world cup victories, fusing power, style and technique into a signature style that is regarded highly. Youri's style is a unique mix of 'fearless full power action' and 'intelligent technical finesse' seen only at a handful of the world's elite riders. It's an inspiring style and a joy to watch him ride. Coming back from some serious injuries the last two seasons, Youri is back with a vengeance, focused at further improving his best (3rd placed) World Cup ranking yet.

Like Youri, the website fuses different styles and the latest technique. Urban style bling and graffiti artwork are blended with tattoo and rum barrel drawings coming from his Brunotti YZ Promodel. The wooden sides are also taken from his Promodel artwork and are enriched with school table scribbling. All the artwork in place to focus at what it's all about: excellent imagery and blogs, information, pictures and video's from Youri's day to day life as a professional kiteboarder.

Without wanting to go into the techtalk too much. Youri's site is feature rich, making it easy for him to update content and write blogs with pictures and video's as he goes along. The site brings picture and video galleries, bio, sponsor, result information and much more. The blog includes RSS for all who want to feed their reader or mash their websites. Interacting with the visitors is easy, by the commenting options on the blog and the general contact form.

Having said enough, you are invited to visit Youri's new website, follow his progression as time goes by and leave a note whenever you feel like it. Go check it out at:
